The path takes you to the left along the riverside towards the approximate site of the yacht club
9-10	The path continues to take you along the river side where river traffic continued during WW1.
10-11	Continuing along the path, you join Clifton Marine Parade and will see The White House on your right and the old railway tracks on your left.
11-12	Continue on the right hand side of Clifton Marine Parade which becomes The Shore, going over the bridge, and cross the road carefully and take the one-way street, up an incline on your left, before The Shore bears sharply to the left. Keeping on the right hand side you will see the site of Rosherville VAD Hospital on your right.
12-13	Crossing the road carefully, a little further along the road on your left, is the site of 11 Burch Road, now Cyril Hall Court.

14-15	Continue along Overcliffe and you will see Pioneer Court on the other side of the road, believed to be the site of 4 Overcliffe.
15-16	Cross the road at the pedestrian crossing, walk to the junction with Darnley Road and use the crossing to arrive on the left hand side of Darnley Road. Turn left at the pub into Barrack Row to walk towards the Railway Station, which will be on your right.

16-17	Continue up the hill and cross the road with care and turn left onto Stone Street. Continue as this becomes Princes Street and you will find St George's Church on your left hand side.
