

Harbledown Trail Walking Instructions

1. St Michael's Churchyard

Start at the War Memorial in St Michael's Churchyard (CT2 8NW)

2. Walter Gabriel's Home

Following Summer Hill towards Canterbury (in the easterly direction) stop by 4 houses with balconies about halfway down the hill on the right hand side looking towards Canterbury.

3. Harold Norton's Home

Find 4 Summer Hill. This was a place of residence of Harold Norton.

4. Charles Harold Clement's Home

Go to the end of the road and walk down towards Canterbury along the side of dual carriageway. After 20 yards you will see a road running up the hill to your right parallel to Summer Hill. This is Mill Lane, walk up there. This is an estate now, built on the site of original cottages where Charles Clements lived.

5. The Yews

Further up this road, 'The Yews' will be on your right. It is now 48 Mill Lanes, but it used to be 'The Yews' where William Lott lived.

6. Golden Hill

Follow Mill Lane and at the top of there is a stile which leads into the National Trust property of Golden Hill.

7. The Mint

Come out of Golden Hill and walk back a little way down Mill Lane. On your left you will see a footpath leading back to the main part of Harbledown. Don't take the drive next to the footpath that leads into the house. Walk down the path until you come back to the main village street just above the church. Turn left and walk up the hill away from Canterbury, Past the bus stop you will see a turning on your left labelled "The Mint", it is an unmade road, walk down here and stop at No. 13, which is the first of the houses on your left at 90 degrees to the lane. Edward Iddenden lived here.

8. St Nicholas Chantry

Carry on walking down the Mint until you get to a gate in the wall at the end. Go through the gate to St Nicholas Chantry. It was here that the parents of Stephen Keeler and Ernest Holness lived.

9. Hall Place

Follow the path down to the left and down the hill past the Black Prince's Well and the Barn to the main village road. Across the other side of the High Street you'll see Hall Place Gatehouse.

10. Old Post Office and School

Walk up the hill. On your left is 4 Hall Place Cottages and a little bit further the Old School.

11. Prospect Cottages

Continue walking up the hill. On your left is 1 Prospect Cottages.

12. Ernest Cook's Home

A little further up the hill is 1 Harbledown Terrace where Ernest Cook lived.

13. The Old Coach and Horses

Carry on up the road until you reach the pub.

14. War Memorial

Carry on up the pathway which will lead you back to the gate to the War Memorial in the churchyard.
