

Sevenoaks Walking instructions

Burgundy Trail

Distance 1.5 miles (2.5km)

Take care the pavements are narrow and some of the route is hilly

1. 55 London Rd Hills Brothers Coal Merchants - TN13 1AU

Starting point.

2. 41 London Road - Essenhigh Corke Photographic Studios

Walk down London Road to number 41 London Road.

3. Granville Road - The Post Office (This part of the road was renamed South Road)

Continue to the junction with South Park Road. The Post Office was down this Road.

4. 18 London Rd - Twiddys

Turn around and on the opposite side of the road is number 18 London Road.

5. E J Payne - Grocers 61 high street

Continue down London Road to where the road forks. 61 High Street is on the corner with Rockdale Road.

6. 23 High Street - White Family

Take care here as the pavements narrow and this is a very busy road. 23 High Street is on the right hand side.

7. St Nicholas Church

Continue down to St Nicholas Church.

8. 36 High Street - Sevenoaks War Supply Depot

Cross the road with great care and walk back up the High Street. 36 High Street is on the bend.

9. 66 High St- Horncastle family

Carry on up the High Street to number 66 High Street.

10. 70A High Street- Book depot

70a High Street is a few doors up from 66 High Street.

11. 88 High Street - Francis family

Walk up to number 88 High Street.

12. 101 High St - Woollatt Butcher

Cross this busy road with care and walk to 101 High Street.

13. 122 High St - Parris bakers

Walk up the High Street and look over to your right just past Buckhurst Avenue junction at 122 High Street.

14. Brewery Lane - Terry family road sign

Carry on up the High Street to the junction with Brewery Lane.

15. Site of Suffolk Lodge - The Mansfields

Walk up the High Street to J.D. Wetherspoon opposite is the site of Suffolk Lodge. (Note: here is where you can go on to complete the extended trail (Green Trail) below. If you do not wish to do the extended trail, skip through to point 16 on the Main Trail (Burgundy Trail)

Leave the Site of Suffolk Lodge, point 15 (Burgundy Trail), and ... to point 1 (Green Trail)

Extension Trail (Green Trail):

1. Old Police Station - TN13 1AU

Starting point: we suggest you look across this point as then you will not need to cross the road for the next point. (Note: here is where you would join from the Burgundy Trail if you had combined the trails.)

2. The Cornwall Hall

Walk up the High Street to the junction with The Drive, and turn left. The Cornwallis Hall can be seen from the road on the left.

3. The Vine

Retrace your steps to the High Street and turn left; you will need to cross this very busy road to access the Vine.

4. The Bandstand

Walk through to the bandstand.

5. War Memorial

Walk along the Vine to the gate and exit nearly opposite the War Memorial. You can cross to the War Memorial, but there are three steep steps and this road is busy. However you do need to access St Botolphs Road so if access to the War memorial is a problem, retrace your steps to where the kerb drops and cross there.

6. Council allotments on St Botolphs Road

Walk along St Botolphs Road which slopes downwards. The allotments were in this area.

7. Buses along St Botolphs

Carry along St Botolphs Road almost to the end

8. Messrs J Martin Tubs Hill

Turn left onto London Road. Tubs Hill arcade is opposite

9. 117 London Road - Wilkins family

There is now quite a long walk, which is uphill, to 117 London Road on right hand side.

10. 107 London Road - The Evans family

107 London Road is on the right before junction with Eardley Road. (Note: here is where you can rejoin the Burgundy Trail after completing the extended trail (Green Trail))

To rejoin the Burgundy Trail, walk to the Sevenoaks Council building which is point 16

16. The site of the Eardley Road Baths (now the Sevenoaks Council building)

Walk to the junction of Pembroke Road. Turn left onto Pembroke Road and walk along Pembroke Road to the Junction of London Road. Turn right, cross the road with great care and walk to the junction of Eardley Road. The Sevenoaks Council building is stop 16. (Note: here is where you would rejoin the Burgundy Trail after completing the extended trail (Green Trail))

17. 10 Eardley Road, Belgian refugees

Continue along Eardley Road to number 10 on the right hand side.

18. 17 Granville Rd Molly Mann

Walk to the end of Eardley Road to the junction with Granville Road. Turn left 17 Granville Road is on the right hand side.

19. 22 Gordon Rd - Wallis family

Carry on to the junction of Gordon Road. Turn left, crossing the road with care. Number 22 is on the right hand side.

20. Argyle Road Drill Hall

Turn right onto Argyle Road. The former drill hall (now ATC) is just around the corner.

21.6 Beech Rd - The Weller family

Retrace your steps cross the road where safe and turn right down Victoria Road. Walk to the junction of Beech Road and number 21 Beech Road is opposite the road junction to the right.

22. 12 Lime Tree Walk - Singleton family

Walk down Beech Road to the junction of Lime Tree Walk. Turn right to number 12.

To return to the starting point turn around and walk back past the junction of Beech Road straight ahead onto London Road.